KUNDALINI VISION

"In my vision I saw the shining disc of the morning sun in a cloudless blue sky--out of which emerged a Golden Eagle that descended into my cranium through the fontanel, and plunging along the sushumna all the way to the muladhara--the airborne Eagle pecked at the coiled serpent on the head and gently lifted it through the sushumna channel now ringed by lotuses- red, yellow, orange, green, blue, white- reaching back to the cranium--the aroused serpent with its thousands of hoods, fully spread and swaying, millions of forked tongues menacingly out spitting fire, hissed and shrieked, raising columns of dark fumes--and the Golden eagle precariously dancing on those mountainous shining slippery hoods--suddenly there was a burst of light as though a thousand suns simultaneously shone on the firmament, and out emerged of that messy plume of light a zillion petaled Lotus on which was seated a White Swan adorned by a golden lightening hallow".

SIVA SAKTHI ISHTA SIDDHI SAMASHTI ARCHANA

SANKALPA

The Sankalpa behind this archana is to invoke the Cosmic Power in the Union of SIVA-SAKTHI to seek their blessings for the fulfilment of a chosen desire of the participating devotee.

KUNDALINI SAKTHI

KUNDALINI SAKTHI, in two and a half coils, sleeps in the Muladhara. In ordinary human beings she expresses as lust, greed and anger. Siva, Her consort, the supreme consciousness, is in blissful self-absorption in the Sahasrara. The Siva Sakthi disunion in the psyche is the cause of all human maladies and sufferings. Siva without Sakthi is powerless and Sakthi without Siva is blind and aimless. The ritualistic objective of this Siva Sakthi Archana is to bring about that unity - 'Siva Sakthi Samyoga' or Siva Parvati Kalyana' in the consciousness of the devotee.

This yogic accomplishment will give the devotee enormous energies and blissful experiences. 'Siva saktya yukto yadi bhavati sakta prabhavitum' - 'Siva in union with Sakthi alone is capable of creative work', says Sankaracharya in "Saundarya Lahari".

Yogis spend years practicing brahmacharya, pranayama and mantra-sadhana to arouse Kundalini and experience its union with Siva. The awakened Kundalini's path is the Sushumna, the subtle nadi that connects the muladhara with the sahasrara. As the Kundalini ascends, the Chakras are activated, unlocking energy, and the Padmas bloom, radiating joy. The awakened Kundalini finally reaches Sahasrara, embraces and embraced by Siva, and the Yogi drowns in an ocean of bliss.

SIVA SAKTHI ISHTA SIDDHI SAMASHTI ARCHANA

Yogi's path is difficult, unattainable and long winding for ordinary devotees and so SWAMI BODHANANDA SARASVATI has designed this new ritualistic instrument, as blend of Mantra, Tantra and Agama traditions, to awaken Kundalini power latent in every human soul. The sattvic vibrations generated by the collective chanting of Siva Sakthi Mantra by 1008 or more Sadhaka/ Sadhikas purify devotees' minds, remove malefic forces from the environment and neutralize disadvantageous planetary configurations. The chanting of the mantra prepares the devotee's mind to directly receive the Divine power and blessings, which bestow wealth, health, success and well-being.

It is Ishta Siddhi Archana because through this collective ritual the devotee will be able to fulfil one important desire - be it for oneself, children and spouse or for a close friend. The devotee writes his/her desire in a specially sanctified paper and deposits it, before the commencement of the Archana, in the Suvarna Kalasa placed before the Devi Pada.

The Archana will be performed with flowers, saffron and grains along with the chanting of Lalitha's thousand and eight names coupled with Panchakshari Mahamantra - OM NAMASIVAYA.

KUNDALINI YANTRA STHALA

The archana will take place in a specially created spatial design - 'Kundalini Yantra Sthala'. This mystic geometrical design consists of seven Chakras-Padmas of the Cosmic Person, the microcosmic form of whom is the human being. Kundalini Yantra Sthala includes Deities like Ganesha, and Hanuman and the nine planets Navagrahas.

The seven Chakras in the order of ascension are:

- Muladhara/anus
- Svadhishtana/genital
- Manipuraka/navel
- Anahata/heart
- Visuddhi/throat
- Ajna/prefrontal cortex
- Sahasrara/lymbic brain

Sushumna that runs through the spinal column pierces these chakras. Ida and Pingala, sun and moon nadis, that control the breath/vital air, encircle, helix like, the Sushumna.
